Statement by MP Alex Ruff on the Federal Electoral Boundaries Commission for Ontario's Report

14 February 2023

Ottawa, ON -- Alex Ruff, Member of Parliament for Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound issued the following statement regarding the Federal Electoral Boundaries Commission for Ontario's report tabled in the House of Commons on 10 February 2023.

"The Federal Electoral Boundary Commission for the Province of Ontario was tasked with reviewing and drawing 122 electoral districts in Ontario. After initial proposals put forward by the Commission outlined potential changes to the riding of Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound, they were rescinded after the consultation period. Therefore, there have been no changes to the name or the boundaries of the riding of Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound.

"I thank the Municipality of Grey Highlands for providing its input to the Commission and highlighting its ties to the rest of Grey County. In my opinion, this input was instrumental in preventing changes to the boundaries as noted in the Commission's report. There are still a few final steps yet to be completed by the Commission; however, I do not anticipate any changes that will impact Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound.

"The report is public and available in PDF format online here: https://redecoupage-redistribution-2022.ca/com/on/rprt/index\_e.aspx"
